

FEW REMAINED TO BITTER END

The State Legislature Will Soon Have Finished Present Year's Work.

MANY MEASURES WITH GOVERNOR

Would Pass Measure To Cut Off Big Corporations Taking Advantage Of The Stocks And Bonds Proposed Legislation.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., July 12.—At one o'clock this noon the legislature shut off all further business except to receive a message from the governor and only enough members remain in the city to attend to the minor routine of matters for the next three days, during which the governor may consider bills.

Before adjourning the stock and bonds bill went through both houses with an assembly amendment, which it is contemplated will affect yesterday's $38,000,000 increase in the capitalization of the Milwaukee Heat, Light & Power companies.

These inflationists it is thought were made to circumvent the law and the amendment is calculated to forestall the evasion.

The $10,000 appropriation for the sufferers from the storms in different parts of the state July 3 failed of passage through the lack of a sufficient number to pass appropriation bills.

Instead resolutions of sympathy were extended and regret expressed at the inability of the legislature to assist financially.

NEW COMMANDANT AT NAVAL ACADEMY

By Virtue of Age Limit Rear Admiral
Sands Retires and Commander
Badger Succeeds.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., July 12.—A number of changes among high naval officers take place today as a result of the retirement of Rear Admiral James H. Sands by virtue of the age limit. During the past two years Rear Admiral Sands has been superintendent of the Naval Academy at Annapolis. He succeeded in that office by Commander Charles J. Badger, who was formerly commandant of midshipmen at the academy. Commander Badger is from Maryland, and entered the navy in June, 1869. For some time past he has served as assistant chief of the Bureau of Navigation. Prior to his appointment to that post he was in command of the cruiser Chicago on the "Pacific station." The successor of Commander Badger as assistant chief of the Navigation Bureau is Commander Cameron McK. Winslow, who was recently relieved from the command of the cruiser Charleston on the Pacific station. While in command of the Charleston, Commander Winslow made a cruise from New York around the coast of South America with Secretary Root as a passenger. Commander Winslow's wife is the daughter of Henry O. Havemeyer of New York. Several years ago Commander Winslow was on duty in the Bureau of Navigation and served as naval aid to President Roosevelt. He was advanced for extraordinary heroism during the war with Spain, and is now due to be promoted to the grade of captain.

MIND UNBALANCED BY BEREAVEMENTS

Clinton Man Who Sold Score Cards Over Western Racing Circuit Became Demented in Iowa.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Clinton, Wis., July 12.—Word was received here yesterday by the family of A. E. Fredendall from the authorities of Decatur, Iowa, saying that A. E. Fredendall of that place was being held in custody at that place in a demented condition and instructed someone to come for him at once. Robert Simmons, nephew of the afflicted man, left last night to bring the unfortunate man home. The news was a great shock to his family which consists of a wife and six children. Mr. Fredendall is one of the most well known men in this part of the country. His business, selling score cards at the races all over the Central and Western circuit, had gained him a very large acquaintance. Mr. and Mrs. Fredendall lost their oldest boy last winter, an exceptionally bright boy in the senior class in high school, and the parents have never fully recovered from the shock, and about two weeks ago Mr. Fredendall's father died and the son was unable to get home to attend the funeral and it is thought that these reasons combined with poor business on account of the rainy season and poor racing have temporarily unbalanced the poor man's mind. It is expected, however, that a good rest will restore him to his usual health. Mr. Fredendall had a brother who was an inmate of the Wisconsin hospital for insane at Mendota for a short time.

ABANDONS TRIP AS IT COST TOO MUCH

Fond du Lac Militia Company Decide
Not to Go to Jamestown Exposition.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Fond du Lac, Wis., July 12.—Company E has decided to postpone indefinitely the proposed trip to the Jamestown exposition. They cannot secure a rate of a cent a mile that was expected. The trip will cost the company $2,000 and at present there is only $1400 in the funds.

WIFE SAVED $2,000 IN TWENTY YEARS

Husband Astounded, Not Having Known of Her Thrift—Was Going to Borrow Half That Amount.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Marquette, Wis., July 12.—William Hensel, a shoemaker, was astounded today when he was about to borrow a thousand dollars for buying some property and his wife produced double the necessary amount which she had saved unbeknown to him for twenty years.

SLIPPED SHACKLES AT PRISON PORTALS

Noted Forger Escaped When but a Few Feet from Penitentiary Walls —Has Had Many Escapes.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Marquette, Mich., July 12.—Albert Pevelette, a noted forger, wriggled out of shackles this morning within a few feet from the penitentiary and escaped. There is no clue to the manner in which he succeeded in the act. He was recently sentenced for fifteen years and had just finished a ten-year term. He cut off one hand several years ago to avoid working in prison.

BOY OF 16 KILLED 218 POUND BEAR

Sturgeon River, Mich., Youth Will Receive Reward from Farmers Who Lost Stock and Poultry.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Calumet, Mich., July 12.—Young Sam of Sturgeon River, a boy of sixteen years, killed a two-hundred-and-eighty-pound bear this morning on the first shot. Farmers who have lost stock and poultry will reward the lad.

Edward M. Shepard of New York Delivers Talk to the Association.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Galesburg, Ill., July 12.—The address by Edward M. Shepard of New York on "corporate capitalization and public morals" was the feature of today's session of the annual meeting of the Illinois State Bar association.

UNWRITTEN LAW IS AGAIN SUSTAINED

Woman and Son Kill Betrayer of Daughter and Sister and Are Cleared.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Laplata, Md., July 12.—The jury in the trial of Mrs. Bowie and son Henry for shooting Hubert Posey last January, today returned a verdict of acquittal after being out but five minutes. The woman and son admitted they shot Posey because he had ruined the daughter and sister and refused to marry her.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR DESERT SARATOGA

Commandries Now Split Up, Members Going to Various Points of Interest.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Saratoga, N. Y., July 12.—The thirteenth triennial convocation of Knights Templars is a thing of the past and today all outgoing trains were laden with home-bound passengers. By night the white plumes and gold gird uniforms which have been so familiar for four days will be a comparative rarity. In numerous instances the commandries have split up in order to take in points of interest in this region. Many have gone direct to New York city, while other parties have gone on excursions to New England resorts, to the White Mountains and the St. Lawrence region. Everyone appears satisfied with the success of the convocation and the manner in which the visitors have been entertained. The gathering has been notable for the great number of women present. Many of the knights brought their wives and daughters with them, and nothing has been left undone to contribute to the pleasure of the guests. For the few knights who will be here tonight and for the local committees a number of supplementary social functions have been planned. These will mark the formal close of the convocation.

PRINCE JOHN TWO YEARS OLD TODAY

Sixth in Line for Succession to Throne of England Born on Caesar's Anniversary.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
London, July 12.—Prince John Charles Francis, the youngest child of the Prince and Princess of Wales, had a birthday today. Though Prince John is but two years old and stands sixth in the line of succession to the throne, his birthday anniversary is accorded the same official honors as in the case of the older members of the royal family. It is interesting to note, by the way, that Prince John's birthday coincides with that of Julius Caesar. After the latter's death and deification the augurs announced that whoever saw the light on Caesar's birthday, "destined to happiness and great glory." It goes without saying that all England hopes their prognostications may prove correct in Prince John's case.

MILWAUKEE USES MUCH GUM ANNUALLY

Cream City Women Becoming World Champions in Gentle Art of Chawin.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milwaukee, Wis., July 12.—Here's new fame for Milwaukee. Milwaukee may be a big drinker of beer, says L. J. Fueth of Chicago, a salesman for gum, but "last year $20,000 worth of penny sticks of gum were sold in the Cream City. Women are increasing their propensity as gum chewers alarmingly."

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milwaukee, Wis., July 12.—Representatives of twenty mutual life insurance companies after a secret meeting here late last night discovered this afternoon and declare that if the governor signs the insurance bills all their companies must quit Wisconsin.

Orangemen Celebrate.
Belfast, July 12.—The Orangemen of Belfast and vicinity held their customary annual celebration today, the parade being one of the largest of recent years. The usual precautions were taken by the authorities to prevent disorder. No serious encounters were reported.

A TERRIBLE INJURY FROM LOADED CIGAR

Fact That Smoker Did Not Have Weed in Mouth Saved Him From Losing His Jaw.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Ashland, Wis., July 12.—Mike Bouriski of Ironwood, says that the man who gives another a loaded cigar is the fooliest of fools. A friend presented Mike with a cigar, and the recipient smoked it—rather, started it. The cigar didn't draw well. Mike took it out of his mouth to look into the subject, and the cigar exploded with an awful crash. The "friend" was a practical joker and put a dynamite cap into the wood. Mike lost a front tooth and an eye. Doctors say that if he had kept the cigar in his mouth, the victim's jaw would have been blown off.

FAIRBANKS WILL BE SPEAKER TONIGHT

Indiana's Icicle of Cocktail Fame Will Address Christian Endeavorers.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Seattle, Wash., July 12.—Again the Christian Endeavor hosts began the day with prayer and song while yet the hour was early. Among the speakers heard at the forenoon rallies in the two auditoriums were Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins of Philadelphia, Rev. B. B. Tyler of Denver, Rev. Lewis S. Hall of St. Paul, W. O. Atwood of Baltimore, and Rev. W. I. Chamberlain, former president of the Christian Endeavor Societies of India, Burma and Ceylon. Denominational rallies occupied the afternoon. Extraordinary interest is manifested in the auditorium meeting tonight owing the fact that Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks will head the list of speakers.

Missionaries Assembled.
Lancaster, Pa., July 12.—The annual convention of the Christian and Missionary Alliance began today at Rocky Springs Park and will continue in session ten days. A large number of delegates are present from Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and the District of Columbia. Prominent among those taking part is the Rev. Dr. A. B. Simpson, the founder of the alliance.

Hattiesburg Chautauqua.
Hattiesburg, Miss., July 12.—A Chautauqua assembly for which preparation has been making for some time under the direction of faculty members of the South Mississippi College, opened today under conditions that promise well for the success of the venture. The program extends over twelve days and provides for numerous features of interest. In addition to several noted lecturers and entertainers the speakers will include a number of candidates for state office.

Plans for Sewer: Blue prints of the plans for the sewer which is to drain the Five Points are being made in the office of the city engineer today. The excavation work is going to be a very difficult and tedious affair for the city as the drain is to be laid between the tracks and all of the dirt from the trench will have to be carried away some distance and then brought back again when the filling commences. The tracks will also have to be supported. Construction work is to be of cement.

TEACHERS ENDING THEIR CONVENTION

Some Delegates Will Visit Places of Interest in West Before Returning Home.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Los Angeles, Cal., July 12.—Satisfied with the profit gained, and more than satisfied with the hospitality shown them, the attendees at the fifth annual meeting of the National Educational Association are holding their concluding sessions today. Some of the teachers will stay over for a short time visiting places of interest in southern California, but the majority of the several thousand strangers who have been the guests of Los Angeles for a week will turn their faces homeward tomorrow. This morning the department of elementary education discussed the topics: "Geography and History in the Life of the Pupil." The department of normal schools held a session presided over by President John R. Kirt of the Missouri State Normal School. Meetings were held also by the departments of art education, school administration, and Indian education. The principal speakers scheduled to address the concluding general session this afternoon are President Benjamin J. Wheeler of the University of California and Professor John Adams of University College, London.

GLIDDEN TOURISTS SEE FRERK RACES

Chicago Automobile Club Entertains With Varied Program of Motor Contests.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chicago, Ill., July 12.—For the entertainment of the Glidden tourists, who are taking a two days' rest in this city preparatory to starting on the return trip east, the Chicago Automobile Club has arranged for a series of notable auto races at the Harlem track. The program calls for motor races of every class, ranging from the short distance sprints to the twenty-four hour grind, together with a goodly sprinkling of freak events. The "round-the-clock" chase, or the international endurance derby, as it is programmed, starts at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon and will finish at the same hour tomorrow. The long drive will be preceded and followed by a number of short distance events. A dozen or more starters are expected in the twenty-four hour contest, among them being such famous pilots as Eddie Bald, Hood, Margine and others. The teams in the big race are to consist of two men each.

AN ALCOHOL ROUTE TO WORLD BEYOND

Painter Drank Denatured Spirits That Had Been Sent Him in Place of Oil.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Monroe, Wis., July 12.—A mistake in sending a five-gallon can of alcohol in place of oil to painters, is now officially stated, was the cause of the death of Paul Rothschild, a painter. He was working for Charles Wake-man, a farmer in Brookfield, when he took advantage of the error and satisfied his thirst with the "paint." He went to a shady tree to enjoy his satisfaction and never awoke again. He was 35 years old.

HAYWOOD DENIES ORCHARD'S STORY ALMOST IN TOTO

Defendant Said He Never Even Thought Of Steunenberg After Leaving Idaho—
One Witness Will Be Impeached.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Boise, Idaho, July 12.—Dominick Flynn, one of the witnesses for the defense in the Haywood trial, was recalled by the state when the case opened this morning. Questions put to him were evidently for the purpose of impeachment.

Denies Hating Steunenberg
After Flynn left the stand Haywood was recalled. Haywood denied he had any concern in or was party to any plot to kill Steunenberg. Haywood said, "I don't think I even thought of Steunenberg after I left Idaho."

In No Plot with Orchard
Several times Haywood positively denied he had talked to Orchard or planned with him for the killing of Bell, Peabody, Hearn, Moffat, Goddard or Gabbert. He declared Orchard's story on the witness stand was the first he had heard of the matter.

Darrow led his client carefully over the ground covered by Orchard and at every charge that Haywood had any connection with Orchard, other than what was of a most innocent character, or with any criminal act, was denied again and again by the witness in most positive terms. Under cross-examination by Senator Borah, Haywood gave a careful explanation of the workings of the Western Federation of Miners, its policy and attitude towards employers and labor.

LIGHTNING KILLED WORKER IN FIELD

Bolt Struck Cultivator, Ending Lives of Operator and Two Horses.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Clinton, Wis., July 12.—In the town of Manchester, Boone county, Ill., just south of Clinton, Arthur Larson, aged twenty years, and two horses were killed by lightning during the storm of Wednesday afternoon. The young man was cultivating on the farm of his father, Lewis Larson, when the storm came. He attempted to drive his team and machinery into the barn but before he reached the building a bolt struck the cultivator and death to him and the animals was instantaneous. He is survived by parents and five brothers.

THIEVES MADE GOOD HAULS IN CLINTON

Home-Coming Celebration Disastrous to Two Pocket-books—Town Shocked by Drunkenness.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Clinton, Wis., July 12.—The Home-Coming week proved an expensive jollification to some of Clinton's unsuspecting innocents, and the nimble fingered gentry were in the crowd and got in their work beautifully. They relieved Chas. Hoffman of a new gold watch and $65 in cash, and Ole Wilson was despoiled of his pocket-book from his hip pocket containing $120, and Eric Erickson just escaped as he detected his mar just as he snapped his chain to his watch. Seeing he was caught, the villain made his escape in the crowd.

Clinton has had more drunks during the past ten days than for the entire two years previous—the no-license period. Some men are drunk who have been sober for many months and the drunkenness has not been confined to the men only. Some of the toughest element of the gentler sex from neighboring towns have imbibed entirely too freely to be steady on their feet.

THREE ACCIDENTS OCCUR AT BRODHEAD

Boy Hurt While Playing on Thrashing Machine—Fence Repairer Rendered Unconscious by Lightning.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Brodhead, Wis., July 12.—While playing on a thrashing machine with other boys, Master Harry Bement received severe cut in the forehead by being within range of the hand lever as someone attempted to operate it. A deep gash was cut directly above his nose and is very painful.

While loading a car of eggs recently Altor Jury received a severe cut on his head by the falling of a number of cases. Several stitches were required in his scalp and the wound has been a very sore one.

Mrs. Edith Rowlands of Esau, Ark., is making an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Kittelsen of this city.

The annual Congregational Sunday school picnic took place today at Decatur parks.

During one of the recent electric storms Elliot Knudson, who was repairing a wire fence, was rendered unconscious by a bolt of lightning. He says he experienced a sort of numb sensation for some hours afterward.

Miss Winifred Broderick is in Monroe attending summer school.

Mrs. J. M. Emery and daughter, Miss Rita Emery, are in Chicago and Milwaukee for the week.

Will Breyvogel and family have been guests of Rockford friends for a week past.

Nels Onsgard returned Monday morning from an extended visit with friends in Spring Grove, Minn.

FOUR LEAGUE BALL GAME TOMORROW

First in Schedule Arranged by Executive Committee—Two at Each Park.

Tomorrow afternoon the first games arranged by the executive committee of the new Bower City Baseball league will be played. At half-past one o'clock the Machinists and Chicago & North-Western railway teams will meet at Athletic Park. On the same grounds at three o'clock the Y. M. C. A. and Parker-Pen company nines will play. The Lewis Knitting company Browns and the Janesville Barb Wire company club will cross bats at the fair grounds at two and two hours later the Gazette Printing company and Janesville Machine company teams will try conclusions. The results of these games will put figures in the percentage columns and count toward the championship. The general public is invited to all contests and no gate fee will be charged.

Plans for Labor Day: The Federated Trades Council of the city will meet tonight to make plans for the proper celebration of Labor Day, the first Monday in September. It is very likely that a picnic, probably up the river, will be the principal number on the day's program.

Will Case Continued: Judge Sala was called to Evansville today and the taking of testimony in the Bleasdale will case will not be resumed until Saturday morning. Some of the details as set forth in yesterday's account of the case were incorrect. Ralph Bleasdale, Jr., left a wife, but no children. Atty. William Dougherty represents the children of the late Joseph Bleasdale.

MUST DECLARE WAR PRIOR TO FIGHTING

Such is Tenor of French Proposition Supported by American, British and Japanese.

The Hague, Holland, July 12.—The first article of the French proposition, that there shall be a declaration of war before the opening of hostilities, was adopted today by the subcommittee to which it was referred. It was supported by the American, British and Japanese delegates. The amendment introduced by The Netherlands, proposing twenty-four hours' delay after the declaration of war before the outbreak of hostilities, was rejected.

Welcomed Order Will Become Effective August 1.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., July 12.—Postmaster General Meyer today promulgated the order, effective August 1, providing that the face side of postal cards may be divided by a vertical line, the space to the left side to be used for a message, etc., and the portion to the right to be used for address only.

AUTOMOBILE BURNED EN ROUTE TO CITY

Can of Gasoline Purchased at Darien Caught Fire and Motorists Could Not Even Save Clothing.

By the ignition of a can of gasoline, purchased at Darien, an eighteen-hundred-dollar Rambler auto was entirely destroyed by fire on the road between Darien and Emerald Grove. The accident occurred Monday and the owner, Frank Carroll of Lake Geneva, and his wife were en route to Janesville. As they passed the Wilson More farm in the town of Bradford the engine broke. Mr. Carroll went to the More farm to telephone for assistance and the car almost immediately took fire. "Mrs. More jumped from the seat and in a moment the auto was enveloped in flames. She was unable to save either her husband's coat, her wraps or pocketbook. After the blaze died down the car was found to be a total wreck, only the damaged framework remaining. Mrs. More had fifteen dollars in her purse and a search for the metal money revealed the fact that the heat had been so intense that the silver was melted.

JUST COMMON RUST NOT A GREEN BUG

No Cause for Alarm, Says Prof. Moore of State University Agricultural College.

The fear of Wisconsin farmers that the "green bug" which is creating havoc in the wheat fields of the south has invaded this state and attacked the oat crops, is unfounded, according to Prof. J. G. Moore, agronomist at the college of agriculture of the University of Wisconsin. Extensive investigation of the fields affected has revealed the fact that rust is responsible for the poor condition of the oat crops, and the green bugs found on many plants in some districts are but common aphids. Discussing the situation, Prof. Moore says:

"Farmers have become alarmed because oat fields have taken on a reddish brown color, and plants are making little growth. While the stand is good, the plants have not reached the height usual for this season. Looking for the cause, farmers have found a green louse or aphid on the plants. In some districts the louse was so numerous that the poor condition of the crop was attributed to it, probably because of the excitement in the south regarding the 'green bug' in the wheat fields. Extended investigations made in the past week by the university experiment station show the aphids more numerous than usual, but in no case is it found in sufficient numbers to cause the damage attributed to it. The aphids would simply suck the juice from the plant, causing it to wither and the leaves to seem punctured by a needle. No doubt the aphids have done some slight damage to infested plants, but a large number of plants show the disease where no aphids are found.

"Practically all damage done may be attributed to oat rust, found on all the plants. Reddish brown blotches appear on the leaves of the plant, somewhat elongated, which later turn dark brown. In nearly all cases the leaves turn brown at the end and die back to the stool. This is because the rust takes up the nourishment which would naturally go to the tissues, and they starve and turn brown. While most farmers are acquainted with rust, they have overlooked it as the cause of the present trouble because it appeared so much earlier than usual. Prevailing weather conditions have been exceptionally favorable for the development and spread of the fungus, and at the same time have retarded the growth and weakened the plants so as to make them more susceptible to attack. It is impossible to predict how seriously the oat crop will be affected. There is a way of combating the disease, and the farmers can do nothing but watch weather conditions until harvest. The indications are that the crop throughout the state will be very light, as practically the whole state is affected, the south and east more than the north and west."

The Value of Ridicule.

"A man," said Dr. Johnson, "should pass a part of his time with the laughers, by which means anything ridiculous or particular about him might be presented to his view and corrected."

South and North Together.

In resources and in population—yes, and in fighting blood also—this country is perhaps the most powerful on earth, even as it is one of the most unready in defense.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

An Electric Rock. There is a story going the rounds to the effect that a rock has been discovered in the vicinity of Monterey, Mex., which by simple rubbing emits electric sparks and produces a blue light of remarkable clarity. Samples of the stone have been sent to the geological institute at Washington, D. C., and also to Thomas A. Edison for analysis.

Dreaming.

I care not how worldly you may be: there are times when all distinctions seem like dust; and when at the graves of the great, you dream of a coming country where your proudest hopes shall be dimmed forever. Married or unmarried, young or old, poor or worker, you are still a dreamer, and will one time feel and know that your life is but a dream.—like Marvel.

WHAT IS IT WORTH TO YOU to know that your home and its occupants, and all your buildings and their contents are absolutely safe from damage by lightning?

The danger doesn't seem great when the sky is blue and the sun shines and nature is at peace, but—

It's different when the lightning sends jagged flames toward earth and the thunder crashes all about.

That's the time you feel that you'd give almost anything for assurance that your family and property are safe.

Well, you can provide safety for them—absolute safety—and it won't cost you very much, either.

A Janesville Copper Cable Lightning Rod will furnish absolute protection from lightning. We've told you how and why a good many times during the past few months, but the strong points we make are these:

No building properly rodded with a copper cable lightning rod was ever struck—and there are tens of thousands of buildings so rodded. And we guarantee to refund the price of the rod if any building equipped with it is damaged by lightning.

Call, or drop us a postal, and we'll "show you."

OBITUARY.

Emanuel Arnold
Emanuel Arnold was born in the state of Pennsylvania Feb. 6, 1838, and died in Hanover July 8, 1907, at 69 years of age. His parents brought him to Wisconsin when he was but three years old. They settled in Plymouth, where he has lived ever since. In 1862 he was united in solemn Christian marriage with Miss Lucy Chipman of Oxfordville. To this union nine children were born, four of whom preceded him to the life beyond. Five yet remain—Ulysses Arnold of Newark, Mrs. Carrie Smith of Beloit, Mrs. Laney Zebell, Mrs. Mabel Borkenhagen, and Frank of Plymouth. In 1890 the wife and mother passed to her reward. Seven years later he married Miss Mary Bedell of Beloit. To this union one child, little Esther, was born. Besides this there are left to mourn him, two brothers, Freeman of Janesville town and William of Bristol, Iowa; and three sisters—Mrs. Sarah Van Buskirk, Webster, Iowa; Mrs. C. Feinberg of Parkersburg, Iowa; and Mrs. Jane Tarrant of Minneapolis. To these relatives is added a host of friends and neighbors who held him in deepest respect. He has passed from us and is now in the hands of his Creator. There we leave him, conscious and assured of justice, love and mercy. Funeral services were conducted at his home in Hanover and the funeral sermon was preached in Plymouth Methodist church by Rev. C. Wesley Boag. Those who furnished music were: Mrs. E. G. Brown, organist; Mrs. Emma Raymond, Mrs. Emma Long, Will Shuman and E. G. Brown. The pallbearers were his two sons, Ulysses and Frank; his three sons-in-law, Charles Zebell, Ben. Borkenhagen and Herbert Smith; and his nephew, Fred Arnold. He was buried in Plymouth cemetery.

Mrs. Fred W. Bush
Mrs. Fred W. Bush, aged 39 years, of 304 Ravine street, died at 9:20 last evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. O. Thurler, 153 Glen street. The deceased had been ill for some time. She had no immediate family, several sisters, some living in this city, and a husband, employed at the Wisconsin Carriage factory, surviving her. The father and mother of the decedent live in the town of Rock. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

Wm. Stricker
The remains of Wm. Stricker, who was found dead near the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul tracks close to Lima Wednesday night, were interred in the Oak Hill cemetery this morning at 11 o'clock at the expense of the county. August Stricker, a brother of the deceased living near Edgerton, arrived here this morning and viewed the remains at the Nelson Undertaking establishment shortly before they were taken to the cemetery.

WALTER SUTHERLAND, WHO FORMERLY RESIDED HERE, MARRIED IN CAPITAL CITY.

Walter Sutherland, who formerly resided with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Sutherland, at 258 Prospect avenue, his bride was Miss Katherine Fleming and this ceremony occurred at 10 o'clock in the morning at the home of her mother, Mrs. Helen U. Fleming. After the wedding breakfast was served to the guests, which included only relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland have gone on a brief wedding trip and on their return to Madison will live at 353 Doty street. Mrs. Margaret Sutherland and two daughters, the Misses Willis and Arlie, of Janesville were present at the marriage.

POP BOTTLE EXPLODED AND GLASS CUT EYE-BALL

Henry Ehrhart of Monroe is now under the care of Dr. J. P. Thorne of this city, having sustained an injury in the left eye on the fourth of July. The accident was different than most Independence day mishaps in that the explosion was not of fireworks but of a ginger ale bottle. Mr. Ehrhart keeps a saloon and as he opened his ice-box the warm atmosphere caused the blowing-up of a bottle, which was either made of defective glass or had been overcharged. One piece of flying glass grazed by the eyeball, cutting a deep wound but not going into the eye.

ELECTRIC COMPANY HAS NEW 250-HORSEPOWER BOILER FOR PLANT

Yesterday afternoon the contract for a new two-hundred-and-fifty-horsepower boiler was closed by the Janesville Electric company. The new equipment will be installed in the power-house near the Fourth avenue bridge and be used as auxiliary to the water wheels. The increase in business during the past year has demanded this addition and the company is in position to supply a large amount of electricity should the water power temporarily fail.

FLORENCE DUGAN'S TRIAL AGAIN CONTINUED TODAY

In municipal court this morning the trial of the action of the State vs. Florence Dugan, charged with assault on George Schumaker with intent to kill, was again continued—this time to July 22.

MRS. ETHEL J. METCALF PASSED AWAY WEDNESDAY

Was Wife of Dr. Walter B. Metcalf of Chicago Who Formerly Practiced Medicine Here.

George A. Metcalf has been notified of the death in Chicago on Wednesday, July 10, of Mrs. Ethel J. Metcalf, wife of Dr. Walter B. Metcalf of that city who was engaged in medical practice here some years ago. The remains were taken to the home of the deceased in Ontario for interment. Dr. Metcalf's many Janesville friends will deeply sympathize with him in his bereavement.

ZETA FLY CHASER

is a remedy that will surely and effectually protect all kinds of animals against flies, mosquitoes, gnats, chicken lice, mites, bedbugs, fleas, and all other kinds of insects. Also the best remedy for killing lice and nits on horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, dogs, etc. It will also heal sores and kill maggots where sores are infected with them. Zeta Fly Chaser may be applied by rubbing on with the hand, or more economically by the use of a paris-green sprayer.

Zeta Fly Chaser is also a great remedy for sores and barbed wire cuts. One or two applications a day will work wonders. We guarantee it to do all we say. If it does not prove satisfactory return us the can and we will cheerfully refund the money. Price, quart cans 35c; gallon cans $1.00.

ZETA LOUSE POWDER

is death to all vermin. Kills lice on horses and cattle, poultry, ticks on sheep, fleas, and destroys bugs on vegetables of all kinds. We guarantee this Louse Powder, too. Money back if not satisfactory. The price is only 25c per box.

I know what these preparations are, and I am willing to stand personally behind every claim made for them.

FAIR PLAY.

In Thursday's paper a communication was published signed "Fair Play," relative to a recent editorial regarding the topsy-turvy condition of the city's sidewalks. The writer resented the imputation the city engineer was responsible and stated that at the recent council meeting an order was passed allowing a walk on the south side of Carriage street to be placed without making any inquiry whatever as to either walks on that thoroughfare. Signed as it was "Fair Play" and written at the prompting of a warm friend of the city engineer, such a broad statement could not go uncorrected. Five aldermen visited Carriage street before the order was passed, viewed the existing conditions and then gave their consent. The Gazette does not deny that many orders are drawn that are not carefully considered by the council, but in this case they must be given their dues. The able defense of the present regime in laying all blame for unsightly walks upon the council fails to clear the city engineer's office from responsibility. Sidewalks must be laid on established grades is true, but why change the old grades? Did not the men who originally lay out the city make the original grades look into the future far enough or were they not efficient and capable engineers? It is true that in an early day requirements for grades of an established nature were not as strictly adhered to as at present, but why not set the new grade conditions to existing circumstances instead of having an arbitrary line drawn, a fast and hard rule with no redeeming features. The council has in the past allowed many property owners to place their sidewalks at the curb line, but this is not the cross condition that was referred to. Take in the same block for instance, one walk is a foot higher than those on either side. The walks on both sides are in good condition, under ordinary conditions lasting a half dozen years. During this period the block resembles a hump on a camel. In the middle of a block of residences a new curb line has been established. The curb is moved out a foot or two, a new walk put down on the curb. Other walks on the same block, also at the old curb line, are off plumb. A strange looking procession. Doubtless the council is responsible for such conditions. Doubtless they ordered these walks placed just as they are. Without a doubt the man who built the walk wanted the hump or the strange snaky appearance in his block. It certainly improves his property. Janesville's grades, Janesville's snaky, mystic mazes of walks, are not all due to the council. Grades are established, new grades, that replace the old ones, streets are narrowed and conditions altered and the council, the poor overworked, the maligned council, is to blame. Bosif.

THE PSYCHOLOGICAL ATTACHE

Now that one of the oldest universities has turned loose an active psychologist upon the criminal talent of the United States in order to determine the contents of their consciousness, suppose that a psychologist should become the attache of every business office of the land.

The management may learn just what his rivals are thinking and secure the lead in the market over other people not similarly equipped. There are vast possibilities in this plan. The trouble with the scheme would be "to catch the hare before the cooking." If, for instance, the speculative world only knew what some financier thought of the future, it might have an hour's peace based on knowledge.

Still further possibilities for the psychologist might lie in the study of the crop pests. Modern psychology does not end with man. It goes down to the brutes, and even to the bugs. Well might the speculator sigh: Oh for an hour with an entomological psychologist! What is to prevent the university psychologist from joining the entomological research squad in the big smitten fields of the southwest, to detect the plans of war and spy out the future invasion, or to ascertain whether the bug really has any purpose of going early into winter quarters? Moreover, there remains to delve into the consciousness of the boll weevil, to see whether it is his purpose, like Caesar of old at the Rhine, to go beyond the Father of Waters. The pushing of the highly important science of insect psychology into these sections would no doubt result in much good—especially to the psychologist.

To return, however, to human affairs, why should not this eminent talent be called upon to determine what blessed bacillus has put new spirit into the stock market? Scientific etiquette might insist that this is biological work, not psychological. But it would take ten years for the psychologist and the biologist to fight out the question of whose field it was to investigate. Hence without waiting for these professional amenities to be settled, it is fair to call upon the psychologist to ascertain the psychological results based upon the biological superinducements, because nobody cares about superinducements as long as the bulls are selling at so low a price. All these things have a market bearing, and there is no reason why a psychologist, with three months' vacation should not be able to throw some light upon the things that vex the speculative soul. If the psychologists are good for anything they ought to be able to tell the rest of mankind just what is the matter with Kansas wheat.

One dispatch says that tons upon tons of Welch coal has been ordered for the American gunboats. Advice from Washington says this is not correct. What does Sagamore Hill say?

Janesville as a distributing center for all the surrounding territory, is not only a possibility, but a probability, now that coffee and tea are to be directly imported for a local firm.

Little by little the city is building, or having built, good sidewalks. If they are kept "on grade" well, and good, if not the old ones will do.

John D. Rockefeller still graces the Golf Links at Cleveland until another court officer gets after him, when he will take to the "wilds."

Mr. Duke of the Tobacco Trust looks injured at being brought into court again, and just after his wedding trip too.

Sugar has gone up in price just as we were all settling down to a good old season of canning the summer fruits.

Farmer Roosevelt has harvested his hay crop. The Long Island rural residents will now follow suit.

Dynamite will not blow off the lid in closed towns. That is one thing dynamite will not do.

When the Atlantic liner hit that iceberg a cold chill went down the spines of all the passengers.

Maybe the defense of the tobacco trust will have something to say about prices when the time comes.

The Standard Oil Company will have to raise prices considerably to pay that fine that is talked of.

Harriman has decided his attraction is not the biggest and best as he thought it was.

Bonaparte would like to have receivers appointed for everything it appears.

Bob Evans is to shoot up and down the Pacific coast.

PRESS COMMENT.

Clings to Top Peg
Antigo Journal: When wheat went up, flour followed suit. Wheat declined soon after, but flour hasn't heard of it yet.

First Class Wader
Rockford Register-Gazette: Mr. Fairbanks rescued a waitress from drowning the other day. Being 6 feet 4 inches tall, Mr. Fairbanks can rush in where short men have to tread.

Diminishing Quantity
Oshkosh Northwestern: It is a wise democrat who can tell how much of that Bryan enthusiasm will be left a year hence. As a matter of fact it seems to be oozing away pretty fast.

Why So Abuse the M. D.?
Madison Democrat: Suffering saints just think of what a slender chance man stands of living! There are 100 medical schools in the country, or more than there are in all Europe.

Riddle None Can Solve
Exchange: A pair of sparrows in ten years can have 275,000,000,000 descendants. The provision against social suicide among sparrows and rats is one of the curiosities of nature.

Cement Boats!
El Paso Herald: Monmouth, Ill., has a unique relic in a boat built in 1849 of "reinforced concrete" or cement mortar spread on wire mesh. Maybe we shall be building ocean steamers of cement sometime.

Much That is a Plenty Sheboygan Journal: Over one billion two hundred million dollars' worth of new securities were issued in the United States during the past six months. There is no need of a drought with that much moisture stored up.

No Extra Flourishes Wanted
Milwaukee Sentinel: "Is oratory declining?" asks a contemporary. No, merely going out of fashion to some extent. Nowadays, most people want a speaker to say a plain thing in a plain way, and stop when he has said it.

At Work for "Christian Dogs"
Exchange: There are 400 Mohammedans in the steel mills of South Chicago, and a mosque is to be built for them. It will seem a little queer to have Americans praying on rugs with their faces to the holy city of the prophet.

John D. in Judicial Woodshed
La Crosse Tribune: It is decided by refreshing to read of a federal judge taking the richest man in the world into the judicial woodshed. One can almost imagine his honor saying: "Johnnie, it is going to hurt me worse than it will you."

Slightly Exaggerated
Exchange: Of course it is probably true that practically all doctors do more or less experimenting with their patients, yet the New York Tribune is drawing it a little strong when it remarks that "modern medicine moves in a mysterious way its blunders, to perform."

Prize Beauty from the Farm
Marquette Eagle Star: It is noteworthy that Miss Worsley, of Union Grove, who is given the palm for beauty in this state, was reared and still lives on a farm, and that she loves outdoor life and out-of-door work. She is no pampered city girl, spending her life at bridge parties and dances, although it is said that she has a wholesome love of social occasions.

Shaighai vs. Street Cars
Superior Telegram: The foreign promoters in China are getting ready to take care of a riot when they start the street cars in Shaighai this month. There is objection on the ground that the electric cars will throw thousands of jinriksha men out of employment and restrict the use of the street by pedestrians and because the trolley wires will carry the lightning during storms and prevent passengers from leaving the cars. These objections come from the native newspapers. It will take some time to modernize China, even if the Japanese superintend the job.

Thinks It Has Discovered Something
La Crosse Leader-Press: The Milwaukee Journal, noted for its vivid imagination, has it figured out that Senator La Follette wishes "to force the nomination of a colorless conservative on the republican presidential ticket, which would lead to the election of a democratic president, so that four years later he (La Follette) might ride into power on the reactionary wave which would logically follow." That would be a most involved political scheme, with chances that it might break down at several points, and it is doubted that Mr. La Follette would attempt to play such a game.

So many people have got into the habit of imagining Senator La Follette always to be engaged in formulating some dire political plot, that they see things sometimes where none exist. Mr. La Follette's moves in the presidential campaign have been confined thus far to the announcement that President Roosevelt should be re-elected. He has done nothing to indicate that he is a candidate for president or that he has any second choice. He is not likely, in case the president should not run again, to favor even secretly, a "colorless conservative." He is not partial to that kind of man.

The manager of the Milwaukee Gas Co. says that after great advertising expenditure and much study and more of statistical work, he has decided that daily newspapers are much more profitable and a great deal more preferable than all form of advertising. Many other advertisers are beginning to think the same way. Newspaperdom.

CHICAGOAN BADLY HURT.

T. B. Clark, Glidden Tourist, Ditched with His Automobile.

Bryan, O., July 12.—The second accident of the endurance tour for the Glidden and Hower cups, has resulted seriously for Theodore B. Clark, of Chicago. The car was entered by Clark and driven by himself. The accident occurred about two miles east of this city, and was caused by the ditching of the big car. Other occupants of the car, E. W. McGooking, of Chicago; Peter R. Fahy, of Cleveland; and George Hunt, of Detroit, had a miraculous escape.

As soon as the danger was seen all three jumped clear of the car except Clark, who was caught behind the steering wheel. The machine turned a complete somersault. Clark is said to be severely injured, and a surgeon was summoned from Chicago.

Big Lake Freighter Launched.
Detroit, Mich., July 12.—The 520-foot freighter Milnocket, built for the Eddy-Shaw syndicate, of Bay City, Mich., was successfully launched Thursday at the Ecorse yards of the Great Lakes Engineering company. The boat was christened by Miss Teresa Marie Dunbar, of Bay City.

Cargo of Explosives Blows Up.
Ketchikan, Alaska, July 12.—The barge Japan, loaded with explosives, blew up when nearing Bold Island, 12 miles south of here, Wednesday night, and four men were killed. Three of the victims were Japanese.

A Base Hit
Menasha Record: The Milwaukee News says that President Roosevelt stands in La Follette's way. No doubt Gibraltar has stood in the way of flies, but old Gib never realized they wanted a clear track.

FOR KIDNAPING SARABIA.

Mexican Consul and Three Officers Held to Grand Jury.

Douglas, Ariz., July 12.—On the charge of kidnaping Manuel Sarabia, alleged to be wanted by the Mexican government on a murder charge, from the jail of Douglas on the night of June 30, Antonio Maza, the regularly appointed Mexican consul at this place, Thursday, was bound to the territorial grand jury of Cochise county under a bond of $1,000, having waived his preliminary hearing.

Charged with the same offense, Constable A. S. J. Shropshire, Arizona ranger Samuel Hayhurst and Policeman Leo Thompson, also were bound over. All gave bond.

CUPID'S TELEGRAM NO PREVARICATION

Announcement of Smith-Dumagan Marriage Verified Today—Wedding Occurred at Indiana Harbor.

Cupid's telegram to the Gazette on Wednesday, announcing the marriage of Miss Margaret Smith and J. F. Dumagan, both of this city, was verified today. The couple, whom the god of love said eloped to Chicago, were married at Indiana Harbor, Ind., a city near Chicago. The ceremony was performed at St. Patrick's church there. Rev. Fr. Nungoban celebrating nuptial mass. The witnesses were Miss Theresa Jenucane and Charles Smith of this city.

COURT'S VERDICT IN STRANGE SEED CASE

Judge Reeder Has Awarded Wm. Finley of Rock $9—Defendant Wadel Will Appeal.

Judge Reeder has found for the plaintiff in the sum of $9 in the remarkable case of William Finley vs. Fred Wadel, an action brought by the first named to recover $25 for timothy and clover seed which he alleges the defendant, under contract to plant, buried in a hole in the ground. Atty. E. H. Ryan represented Finley and Atty. Louis Avery was Wadel's counsel. The latter will appeal to circuit court.

Woman Brought Before District Attorney at Monroe For Living With Man Without Marriage.

Monroe, Wis., July 12.—Elizabeth Lacey, who claims she came here from Janesville, and George W. Davis of this city, were brought before the district attorney here today and reminded that they were violating the laws of the state by living together without having been married. They were told that criminal prosecution would be brought against them if they did not desist their present method of abode under common-law marriage, whereupon they both agreed to comply with the request of the authorities. The matter was then dropped.

ONLY ONE FAIR IN COUNTY THIS YEAR

Evansville Will Hold Its Annual County Fair in the First Week of September.

Rock county will have but one fair this coming fall. Evansville being the only city that will hold its usual annual event in the county. The Rock County fair will open in that city on September 3 and will continue four days. Patrons of the fair and the public generally are assured one of the best that has ever been given at Evansville from the good looks of the annual premium list that has recently been issued. Sporting events will be one of the strong points at the coming event. It has been arranged to have something doing both in the forenoon and afternoon in the way of sports, large purses having been hung up for both horse races and baseball games between clubs in Southern Wisconsin. Premium books are now being sent out and distributed over the county advertising the fair.

Don't Forget.
To see those fine lots in Spring Brook addition. Come on Sunday. Only a few left. Buy while you can. One dollar down and 50 cts. per week.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.
Subscribers, intending to spend a week or more out of the city and wishing to have The Gazette sent to their address will receive the paper much more promptly by notifying this office of change of address on or before the Saturday previous to departure.

The Daily Gazette will send two people on delightful vacation trips to Charlevoix by way of Lake Michigan. Vote for some friend. It costs nothing.

Wall Badly Damaged: After the rain of Wednesday afternoon twenty feet of a side wall on the building occupied by the Hutchinson paint shop, East Milwaukee street, gave way. It is thought that a continual flow of water down the wall during every rain had rotted away the mortar and Wednesday's storm completed the destructive work. The damage, which is now being repaired, will probably be covered by two or three hundred dollars.

New York's Temperature.
The records for New York are fairly complete since 1823, and they show, prior to the advent of the local bureau, that our coldest year was in 1837, with an average temperature of 47.6 degrees, and the warmest in 1865, averaging 53.5. This would make a difference of about 14 weeks in the period of vegetation in the extreme years.—N. Y. Times.

IS IT THE GALENA OR INDIAN RELIC?

Pieces of Lead Found Near the Bluff Close to Lake Koshkonong.

Whether the pieces of lead and flint recently plowed out of the ground near the bluff close to Lake Koshkonong are indications of a lead deposit in that vicinity or are relics of old Indian days when the Red men roamed over their hunting grounds around the lake is a question which is occupying the attention of residents in and around the lake. The substances are usually found together in lead districts but their recent discovery near Lake Koshkonong is quite out of the ordinary where both are foreign to the locality. The possibility that the minerals may have been carried to that locality from the vicinity around Mineral Point by the Indians when they were wont to roam over the southern part of Wisconsin is the only matter that makes the people around Lake Koshkonong skeptical about thinking they have a deposit of lead underneath them. Investigations will be made with the hope of discovering further indications of a mineral deposit in that section by property owners who would be greatly enriched by the discovery of lead.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Eye Will Be Saved: John Finson of Racine, who was among Janesville's fourth of July victims, will retain the sight of his right eye, which was badly injured by a firecracker thrown against the optic by some unknown person. The explosion ruptured a number of blood vessels in the eyeball and under the treatment of Dr. J. P. Thorne the greater part of the blood has now been absorbed. Yesterday Mr. Finson was able to see for the first time since the accident and it is believed that the optic will be made fairly good.

After Blind Pig: District Attorney John L. Fisher went to Edgerton this morning to appear in the State of Wisconsin vs. Lentz case which came up for trial here today. Lentz is charged with violating the law by illegally selling liquor.

Spend Day at Orfordville: Forty-six ladies left here this morning on the westbound St. Paul passenger train for Orfordville, where they will spend the day at the meeting of the Summer Club of Household Economists held at the home of Mrs. Homer Taylor.

A. O. H. Auxiliary Surprised: The Ladies' Auxiliary to the A. O. H., at the close of the monthly meeting in Assembly hall block last evening, were surprised by a delegation of gentlemen who filled in with generous supplies of ice-cream and cake and the Roy Carter orchestra. A good time was immediately in progress and the festivities did not end until the last waltz was played at twelve o'clock.

Changes in Bank: Andrew C. Pond has resigned his position as teller at the First National Bank and the vacancy will be filled by Harry Hagart, now teller in the savings department. His and other places are to be filled by promotion, but these have not yet been positively decided upon.

OPERATORS DELAY CHICAGO STRIKE

MASS MEETING CALLED FOR SUN-DAY IS POSTPONED.

PEACE HOPE RENEWED

Telegraphers Decide to Await the Outcome of Commissioner Neill's Visit to San Francisco.

Chicago, July 12.—Following the receipt of a telegram from President Small, the local executive board of the Telegraphers' union Thursday decided to defer calling a strike meeting pending the outcome of the peace negotiations to be opened at San Francisco Friday by Commissioner
Neill.

The local executive board held a meeting at the union headquarters in the Omaha building in the afternoon, at which the situation was discussed at length. At the conclusion of the meeting, E. M. Moore, chairman of the local executive board, handed out a notice to the effect that the Chicago officials of the union desired to await developments at San Francisco before plunging into a strike here.

Delayed, Not Abandoned.
A proviso, however, was attached to the notice reserving the right of the executive board to call a strike meeting in Chicago at a moment's notice should the San Francisco situation warrant such action.

Commissioner Neill, to whom both the operators and the officials of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies look for a possible solution of the present crisis, will arrive at San Francisco at noon Friday. He probably will begin at once an effort to bring about a meeting of the key men's officials with the employers.

All Depends on Frisco.

He is accompanied by the operators' committee, the members of which, with President Small, will carry on the negotiations for the key men.
Whether there will be peace or war now depends on the outcome of the conference in the coast city and upon the efforts toward conciliation to be exercised by Commissioner Neill.

"We are awaiting the outcome of the meeting at San Francisco," said Secretary Russell, of the international union. "Whether or not there will be a strike depends upon the results of Commissioner Neill's efforts there.
We probably shall know by Saturday what the outcome will be."

WHERE WILL YOU GO ON YOUR VACATION?

Secure a Few New Subscribers for The Gazette and Go to Charlevoix with Some Friend at the Expense of This Paper.

TURN IN ALL NEW ONES BY JULY 15TH

Thos. Heffernan Again Goes Back Into Third Place in the Gentlemen's List—Louis Bystead Takes 2nd Position in His District, While Mr. J. F. Newman Takes First Honors in the Third with the High Vote of the Contest.

SPECIAL PRIZE.

To the candidate turning in the largest number of "new" subscribers for six months or over by 8 o'clock p. m. July 15, will be given the two trips to Charlevoix by way of Chicago and Lake Michigan, expenses paid, unless the one turning in the largest number of new subscribers should also win the trips to the "Soo." In this case the Charlevoix trips go to the one sending in the second largest number of "new" subscribers. Get all you can. You may be second and still win the trips.

After tomorrow all restrictions regarding the number of votes you can have published any one day will be removed. Get and vote all you wish. At the beginning of the contest it was estimated that the high vote of the contest would pass 100,000, but the way the votes are being carried away by everybody it will likely go several times that much. Vote getting has proven to be so easy that one candidate said yesterday that he would be willing to start in this late and try to win out in either the gentlemen's list or in the second district. It is still not too late.

Try these Delicious Bean Sandwiches

If it's hot and muggy today don't bother with meat or anything hot. You know as well as we do that even the smell of cooking on a hot day makes you and the whole family cross instead of hungry. But, instead, ask your grocer to send up a can of and prepare the recipe in the corner for lunch. If you've never tried Bean Sandwiches made from Van Camp's you've a new delight awaiting you. They serve daintily, are solid enough to stand by you, and the rich flavor of the beans (brought out by the exclusive Van Camp process) when spread between the slices, makes a meal fit for a king.

VanCamp's BAKED WITH TOMATO SAUCE PORK AND BEANS

BOYCOTT RAILROAD PROPERTY.

Deadwood Volunteer Firemen Decide to Let It Burn.

Deadwood, S. D., July 12.—Because the Northwestern railroad refused to make an excursion rate of 70 cents for the volunteer firemen's picnic, the firemen have declared a boycott on railroad property. At a meeting Thursday they voted to refuse to protect railroad property or to render any assistance in case of fire. The railroad is given until July 25 to make the concession of a 70-cent rate.

Shipbuilders Again Lose Strike.

Cleveland, O., July 12.—The strike at the yards here of the American Shipbuilding company was again declared off Thursday and the plant resumed work with a full complement of men. The officials of the company would not recede from their declaration to employ whom they pleased, and the men, after having been out about ten days, presented themselves at the gates and were re-employed without favor.

Come With Us To Alberta.

Stock raising is the most profitable and satisfactory branch of farming. The IDEAL grazing and stock region in Southern Alberta, Canada. Climate and weather conditions are so favorable that stock is kept on the range all winter and no expensive stables are needed—shed feeding is all that is necessary.

The snowfall is much lighter than in Wisconsin, and the grasses furnish feed for the stock all winter. Alfalfa, the best all-round forage plant, grows thickly and luxuriantly year in and year out. Once rooted, it lasts a lifetime, and you may harvest two or three crops a year. Good alfalfa land, under irrigation, you can buy for $18.00 to $25.00 per acre.

But stock raising is far from being the only profitable purpose to which this fertile land may be put. The most desirable conditions are to be found in Southern Alberta for farming of all kinds. Alberta is YOUR opportunity. It has ALL of the advantages and NONE of the drawbacks of the most fertile farming regions in the United States.

Read what the most thoroughly posted and most competent grain man in the northwest has just written:

"I have been vitally interested in the crops of the Northwest States for the past 15 years and never in all of my experience have I seen such crops anywhere in any country as we have here in Alberta at the present time. Conditions could not possibly have been better had they been made to order. The winter wheat crop is especially fine and promising. This does not apply to any one district in Alberta but to the entire area."

Maps, literature, and further information can be had by addressing us at any time.

Our next excursion to these Southern Alberta lands will be Tuesday, July 16th. If you are looking for a real opportunity be sure to call on us and arrange to make the trip with us. Just let us know you are interested and we will supply you with all the details.

Wise, and Wiser.
He is a wise man who knows when to stop. That you have heard before, says the Business Arena. He is a wiser man, though, who knows when not to stop—who pushes a good thing through until the vines hang heavily with the golden dollars that are his just reward for efforts hard, untiring.

All Must Yield.
Obedience is our universal duty and destiny; wherein whoso will not bend must break; too early and too thoroughly we cannot be trained to know that "would," in this world of ours, is a mere zero to "should," and, for most part, as the smallest of fractions even to "shall."—Carlyle.

Population of Egypt.
Census returns show that the total population of Egypt, exclusive of nomad Bedouins, is 11,206,350, of whom 5,618,654 are males and 5,587, 675 females. This is an increase of nearly 1,500,000 since 1897.

Faithfulness.
There is nothing possible to a human greater than simple faithfulness.
And the word stands out as the hopeful, possible thing about our lives.—Malthus D. Babcock.

NO MORE SLUGS FOR PLAYING MACHINES

Using Them in Slot Machines Is Made Punishable by a Fine in Measure Passed by Legislature.

Janesville People who have been in the habit of using slugs to work the slot machines in the past must mend their ways. According to the bill passed by the assembly such action lays them subject to a heavy fine.
The measure came from the Senate to the house and was concurred in. No one in the future must attempt to cheat a slot machine by using a slug or a device of any kind. It is especially intended to prevent persons from defrauding telephone companies by using slugs to operate slot-phones. The penalty for violating the act is a fine of $50 or imprisonment in jail for sixty days, or both fine and imprisonment. The penalty for making any device for cheating slot machines is a fine of $500 or imprisonment in jail for a year or both fine and imprisonment.

THAT RUNAWAY PAIR WERE INTERCEPTED

Evansville Woman Whose Name Is Said to Be Mrs. F. Johnson Was Taken Home Last Night.

The runaway couple from Evansville who drove to this city Wednesday evening and after leaving their rig at the Goodman livery, took the 10-15 southbound interurban car, were arrested at the Clarke hotel in Elgin early yesterday morning. They were registered at the hotel as Mr.
and Mrs. A. G. Joans. The man, whose name was Fred King, was not detained, but the woman was brought here by Officer Cal Broughton last evening and taken to Evansville. Her name, it is understood, is Mrs. F.
Johnson and she is said to have left a farewell letter written message to her husband and three children which was discovered almost immediately after her departure. King is a young farmer who had been living in the vicinity of Evansville.

WHITEHEAD OFFERED
MEMORIAL ADDRESS

Hamilton Richardson, Allen Perry
Lovejoy, H. N. Davis and James Sutherland Were Honored.
At the session of the state senate yesterday Senator John M. Whitehead delivered an address in commemoration of the life and services of Hamilton Richardson, Allen Perry
Lovejoy, H. N. Davis and Hon. James Sutherland, all deceased, who were former members of the state Senate from Rock county.

A Notice
To parents, guardians and interested friends of dead children:
The next term of the Wisconsin State School for the Deaf, located at Delavan, Wis., will begin September 11th, 1907.
This school ranks among the best of its kind in the country. Its graduates enter colleges or take their places among hearing men and women as successful bread-winners.
Besides instruction in the common school branches the school offers:
A two years' high school course.
For the boys, a complete course in manual training.
For the girls, a complete course in domestic science.
Free hand and mechanical drawing.
Speech and lip reading.
For the boys, courses in carpentry, cabinet making and printing.
For the girls, courses in printing, millinery, sewing and cooking.
Consentations: supervisors, physicians, nurses and teachers care for the habits, health and instruction of the students.
Children are admitted as soon as they can care for themselves physically. For most children this means at the age of six years.
Board, medical attendance and education all furnished free to deaf children who are residents of Wisconsin.
For further information write to:

SHORT TALKS BY
L. T. COOPER.
ALL WORN OUT.
This is the time of year for the "all worn out" feeling. You hear it everywhere.
"I'm all worn out." Did you ever stop to think what it means? Well, it means just this: "My liver is dull and not working properly, my stomach is taking too much food."
Mr. John Burger, much food which isn't digesting properly, I am clogged up from being indoors with so little fresh air all winter long, and my body is full of impurities. In consequence I'm dull, half feverish and tired all the time." That is what "all worn out" really means.
Take a tablespoonful of Cooper's New Discovery three times a day for two weeks and the "all worn out" feeling will certainly leave.
Mr. Burger was "all worn out" once.
"For some weeks I suffered from an affection of the stomach that seemed to wear me out completely. My system was run down, my bowels constipated, I had dull headaches and although I was not sick enough to go to bed I did not have ambition to stir around. I read of Cooper's New Discovery and began using it. I am glad to say that two bottles put me on my feet and relieved every symptom of my trouble. It is one of the best system tonics I have ever heard of."

cinnati, O.

GREEN BUG PESTS AN UNKNOWN QUANTITY

Appearance of This Dreaded Pest in Rock County Out Fields Is Announced.

Some days ago it was announced in the Gazette that the dreaded green bug had appeared in the oat and grain fields in the southern portion of the county. Since then the reports come from other portions of the county and from the northern part of the state that the bug has appeared there.
In Rock county several large fields of oats have been almost ruined. The grain appears to be browning already, only the brown is of an unnatural color.
Just how much damage has been done can not be estimated at present, but it is safe to say it will be considerable and be a factor in the total result of the present year's crop.

The Review of Reviews gives this particular mention in its July issue, in a review of "a year of delayed harvests." It says the bug began its ravages in northern Texas as early as March, which was a month of exceptionally high temperature in that section, and rapidly worked its way into Oklahoma. It reached Kansas in April, and caused damage to the growing crops in the southern part of that state. The entomological department of Kansas University made a vigorous fight against the bug, with the assistance of millers, grain dealers and commercial organizations, importing over 12,000 boxes of parasite enemies of the bug and distributing them over seventy counties. This scientific warfare was aided by unfavorable weather in May, and the progress of the pest was checked, but not until thousands of acres of winter wheat had been destroyed in the southern portion of the winter wheat area, in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas. Early in June the bug compelled many farmers in southeastern Colorado to plow under their wheat and start over. About this time the bug was reported to be at work in Ohio, Indiana, and on the western edge of Missouri, and it is evident from later reports that it is likely to spread over the entire west.
The "green bug" is an importation.
It was first reported in 1892, in Italy.
Its first appearance in the United States was in 1894, in Maryland, where it inflicted only slight damage, because of its lack of numbers. In 1899 it appeared in Indiana and devastated the oat fields in several counties, and in the same year it infested Southern wheat fields. In 1901 the bug appeared in Texas, but created no anxiety there, but the peculiar climatic conditions of last winter in the Southwest were favorable to the insect, which immediately renewed its activity.

CHAPTER IV.
TELL me, what do the papers say?
Settling herself comfortably back in the carriage, Shirley questioned Jefferson with eagerness, even anxiety. She had been impatiently awaiting the arrival of the newspapers from "home," for so much depended on this first effort. She knew her book had been praised in some quarters, and her publishers had written her that the sales were bigger every day, but she was curious to learn how it had been received by the reviewers.

Shirley was not beautiful, but hers was a face that never failed to attract attention. It was a thoughtful and interesting face, with an intellectual brow and large, expressive eyes, the face of a woman who had both brain power and ideals, and yet who, at the same time, was in perfect sympathy with the world. She was fair in complexion, and her fine brown eyes, alternately reflective and alert, were shaded by long dark lashes. Her eyebrows were delicately arched, and she had a good nose. She wore her hair well off the forehead, which was broader than in the average woman, suggesting good mentality. Her mouth, however, was her strongest feature. It was well shaped, but there were firm lines about it that suggested unusual will power. Yet it smiled readily, and when it did there was an agreeable vision of strong, healthy looking teeth of dazzling whiteness. She was a little over medium height and slender in figure and carried herself with that unimpeachable air of well bred independence that bespeaks birth and culture. She dressed stylishly, and while her gowns were of rich material and of a cut suggesting expensive modistes, she was always so quietly attired and in such perfect taste that after leaving her one could never recall what she had on.

"Tell me," she repeated, "what do the papers say about the book?"
"Say?" he echoed. "Why, simply that you've written the biggest book of the year, that's all!"
"Really? Oh, do tell me all they said!" She was fairly excited now, and in her enthusiasm she grasped Jefferson's broad, sunburnt hand which was lying outside the carriage rug. He tried to appear unconscious of the contact, which made his every nerve tingle, as he proceeded to tell her the gist of the reviews he had read that afternoon.

"Isn't that splendid?" she exclaimed when he had finished. Then she added quickly:
"I wonder if your father has seen it?"
Jefferson grinned. He had something on his conscience, and this was a good opportunity to get rid of it. He replied laconically:

"He probably has read it by this time. I sent him a copy myself."
The instant the words were out of his mouth he was sorry, for Shirley's face had changed color.

"You sent him a copy of 'The American Octopus'?" she cried. "Then he'll guess who wrote the book!"
"Oh, no, he won't," rejoined Jefferson calmly. "He has no idea who sent it to him. I mailed it anonymously!"
Shirley breathed a sigh of relief. It was so important that her identity should remain a secret. As daughter of a supreme court judge she had to be most careful. She would not embarrass her father for anything in the world.

Suddenly Jefferson asked her:
"Have you heard from mother recently?"

"I had a letter from father last week. Everything was going on at home as when I left. Father says he misses me sadly and that mother is illing, as usual."

She smiled, and Jefferson smiled too. They both knew by experience that nothing really serious ailed Mrs. Rossmore, who was a good deal of a hypochondriac and always so filled with aches and pains that on the few occasions when she really felt well she was genuinely alarmed.

The cab stopped suddenly in front of beautiful gilded gates. It was the Luxembourg, and through the tall railings they caught a glimpse of well-kept lawns, splashing fountains and richly dressed children playing. From the distance came the stirring strains of a brass band.

The coachman drove up to the curb, and Jefferson jumped down, assisting Shirley to alight.

They entered the gardens, following the sweet scented paths until they came to where the music was. The band of an infantry regiment was playing, and a large crowd had gathered. Many people were sitting on the chairs provided for visitors for the modest fee of two cents; others were promenading round and round a great circle having the musicians in its center. The dense foliage of the trees overhead afforded a perfect shelter from the hot rays of the sun, and the place was so inviting and interesting, so cool and so full of sweet perfumes and sounds, appealing to and satisfying the senses, that Shirley wished they had more time to spend there.

"Isn't it delightful here?" said she. "I could stay here forever, couldn't you?"

"With you—yes," answered Jefferson, with a significant smile.

Shirley tried to look angry. She strictly discouraged these conventional, sentimental speeches which constantly hung her sex in her face.

"Now, you know I don't like you to talk that way," Mr. Ryder. "It's most undignified. Please be sensible."

Quite subdued, Jefferson relapsed into a sulky silence. Presently he said:
"I wish you wouldn't call me Mr. Ryder. I meant to ask you this before. You know very well that you're no great love for the name, and if you persist, you'll end by including me in your hatred of the hero of your book."

Shirley looked at him with amused curiosity.

"What do you mean," she asked. "What do you want me to call you?"

"Oh, I don't know," he stammered, rather intimidated by this self possessed young woman, who looked him calmly through and through. "Why not call me Jefferson? Mr. Ryder is so formal."

Shirley laughed outright, a merry, unrestrained peal of honest laughter, which made the passersby turn their heads and smile, too, commenting on the while on the stylish appearance of the two Americans whom they took for sweethearts. After all, reasoned Shirley, he was right. They had been together now nearly every hour in the day for over a month. It was absurd to call him Mr. Ryder. So, addressing him with mock gravity, she said:

"You're right, Mr. Ryder—I mean Jefferson. You're quite right. You are Jefferson from this time on, only remember—here she shook her gloved finger at him warningly—"mind you behave yourself! No more such sentimental speeches as you made just now."

Jefferson beamed. He felt at least two inches taller, and at that moment he would not have changed places with any one in the world. To hide the embarrassment his gratification caused him he pulled out his watch and exclaimed:

"Why, it's a quarter past six. We shall have all we can do to get back to the hotel and dress for dinner."

Shirley rose at once, although loath to leave.

"I had no idea it was so late," she said. "How the time flies!" Then mockingly she added: "Come, Jefferson—be a good boy and find a cab."

They passed out of the gardens by the gate facing the Theatre d'Odéon, where there was a long string of facers for hire. They got into one, and in fifteen minutes they were back at the Grand Hotel.

At the office they told Shirley that her aunt had already come in and gone to her room, so she hurried upstairs to dress for dinner, while Jefferson proceeded to the Hotel de l'Athénée on the same mission. He had still twenty-five minutes before dinner time, and he needed only ten minutes for a wash and to jump into his dress suit, so, instead of going directly to his hotel, he sat down at the Café de la Paix. He was thirsty, and calling for a vermouth trappé he told the garcon to bring him also the American papers.

The waiter returned with the vermouth and the newspapers. All he could find were the London Times, which he pronounced P-o-m-a, and some issues of the New York Herald. The papers were nearly a month old, but he did not care for that. Jefferson idly turned over the pages of the Herald. His thoughts were still running on Shirley, and he was paying little attention to what he was reading. Suddenly, however, his eyes rested on a headline which made him sit up with a start. It read as follows:

"Judge Rossmore Impeached—Justice of the Supreme Court to Be Tried On Bribery Charges."

The dispatch, which was dated Washington two weeks back, went on to say that serious charges affecting the integrity of Judge Rossmore had been made the subject of congressional inquiry and that the result of the inquiry was so grave that a demand for impeachment would be at once sent to the senate. It added that the charges grew out of the recent decision in the Great Northwestern Mining company case, it being alleged that Judge Rossmore had accepted a large sum of money on condition of his handing down a decision favorable to the company.

Jefferson was thunderstruck. He read the dispatch over again to make sure there was no mistake. No, it was very plain—Judge Rossmore of Madison avenue. But how preposterous, what a calumny! He paid for his vermouth and hurried away to his

NOTES TO CRESS.

It was just striking 7 when he re-entered the courtyard of the Grand hotel. Shirley and Mrs. Blake were waiting for him.

They drove up the stately Champs Elysees, past the monumental Arc de Triomphe and from there down to the Bois. All were singularly quiet. Mrs. Blake was worrying about her new gown, Shirley was tired, and Jefferson could not banish from his mind the terrible news he had just read. He avoided looking at Shirley until the latter noticed it and thought she must have offended him in some way. She was more sorry than she would have him know, for with all her apparent coldness Jefferson was rapidly becoming very indispensable to her happiness.

It was nearly 10 o'clock when they had finished. They sat a little longer listening to the gypsy music, weird and barbaric. Very pointedly, Shirley remarked:

"I for one preferred the music this afternoon."

"Why?" inquired Jefferson, ignoring the petulant note in her voice.

"Because you were more amiable!" she retorted rather crossly. "But she could never remain angry long, and when they said good night she, whispered demurely:

"Are you cross with me, Jeff?"

He turned his head away, and she saw that his face was singularly drawn and grave.

"Cross—no. Good night. God bless you!" he said, hoarsely gulping down a lump that rose in his throat. Then grasping her hand he hurried away.

Completely mystified, Shirley and her companion turned to the office to get the key of their room. As the man handed it to Shirley he passed her also a cablegram, which had just come. She changed color. She did not like telegrams. She always had a dread of them, for with her sudden news was usually bad news. Could this, she thought, explain Jefferson's strange behavior? Trembling, she tore open the envelope and read:

Come home at once. MOTHER.

BITS OF NEWS.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

S. S. S. is recognized everywhere not only as the best of all blood purifiers and the greatest of all tonics, but the one medicine that can be taken with absolute safety by everyone. Young or old, those in robust health, or those whose systems are delicate and run-down, may use it with the same good results, and equally without fear of any unpleasant or injurious after effects. Next in importance to removing the cause of any disease is the condition in which the system is left after a course of medical treatment. Medicines containing mercury, potash or other strong mineral ingredients often do permanent injury by eating out the delicate lining and tissues of the stomach, producing chronic dyspepsia, unfavorably affecting the bowels, and so deranging the system otherwise, that even if the original disease had been removed from the system it is left in such a weakened and deranged condition that the health is permanently impaired. S. S. S. enjoys the distinction of being the only blood medicine on the market that does not contain a mineral ingredient of some kind. It is made entirely of the healing, cleansing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks gathered directly from the forests and fields of nature, under our own supervision, and when they reach our laboratory contain all their original valuable tonic and blood purifying properties. We offer a reward of $1,000 for proof that S. S. S. contains a particle of mineral in any form. Being made entirely from these vegetable ingredients, S. S. S. is absolutely harmless to the system, and while curing disease adds health and strength to every part of the body. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, and all other blood troubles by removing the cause and supplying the circulation with health-giving and strength-producing qualities.

Countess Dancing for a Living.

A great sensation has been created throughout Sweden by the appearance on the stage as a dancer in national costume of the little Countess von Nordenfjeld, who is only 12 years old, and whose family, through continued misfortune, has fallen into evil ways. According to a German newspaper the little titled dancer will before long appear at German, French and English theaters. She is receiving the magnificent salary of $350 a week.

Uncle Sam's Pasturage.

Uncle Sam, unlike Job, the rich man of the east, does not own many cattle and horses, or sheep and goats, but he furnishes an enormous amount of grazing land for those who do have herds and flocks, says the Wall Street Journal. The total number of grown stock allowed to graze upon national forest lands during the season of 1907 included 1,388,000 cattle and horses and 4,895,020 sheep and goats.

Concrete Lighthouse.

By the use of concrete a tall light-house was constructed in a short period of time at the Point de la Coudre, at the mouth of the Glorinde river, in France. The building is 225 feet high and about 35 feet in diameter at the base. It was finished in nine months after the beginning of the work, and cost $90,000. The haste was due to the fact that the sea threatened to wash away the old structure.

The Chugs.
"Josiah," said Mrs. Chugwater, wiping her spectacles, "baseball must be an awful cruel game. This paper says a man named Smith was pounded all over the lot. And I guess it must have been true, for it says that in the next inning he died on second base."

Mr. Merchant:

The best light is not always the cheapest, but the cost of any but Electric Light is not to be measured by any meter except the shrinkage of your profits. Show windows are your best advertisement. You are losing 50 per cent of their value if they are not lit up after dark. Electricity furnishes the only proper and safe light for the windows.
